Dearest Board

I've attached the word doc we were working off of tonight. If you couldn't make it this evening, the general consensus is that Movie Night in the Park may get rather large (meaning 300-500+). There are significant outreach assignments for the various members of the board, and certainly, all of them are needed. As I mentioned tonight, the primary message to get across; is that this event is being held at "The New" WRC and more importantly, the LAPD is co-hosting the festivities.

The movie we're showing is "The Parent Trap" by Disney, 1998, 128 minutes long, Cast: Lindsay Lohan, Dennis Quaid, Natasha Richardson. The film will be shown in-between diamonds 1 & 2. This is the only area that can handle the crowd. Post feature we'll also be able to turn on our beautiful new lights for safe passage home. A "Teen Tent" will be set up for that age group, allowing them to text each other from only a few feet away. We'll also be recruiting those kids for our new Teen Club at the Park.

Not surprisingly, Bill Rosendahl will be attending the event and is really excited about the whole concept. Thank you Nate, Bill will be speaking prior to the movie and staying with us for the duration. I really think that's a great win for us. The LAPD will be sending their "Community Relations RV" along with officers on bicycles and a number of squad cars. We have to give them a "event layout schematic" this week. Our efforts to have a horseback patrol, were met with a plain old----NO. So forget that one, although we still have time to rent two Great Danes and a Cub Scout.

One thing we didn't talk about tonight was Dogs. Discourage people from bringing them.

Thanks everyone for everything that you do. I really enjoy our Board, It's a great group. I'm also excited about this event, the first time you try to pull-off something new, is always the best. Let's have fun.

Thank you,

Scott Carni
